CHICAGO, June 10 .- The Repub lican platform plank, designed to deal with prohibition, got lost in the shuffle today, furnished a new thrill for "wets" and "drys" and raised some question of its legal status.

The plank does not mention prohibition, but is a "law and order" declaration for impartial enforcement of all

In a mixup from confusion of platform work, the plank was left from the great pile taken to the Coliseum and read by Chairman Watson of the resolutions committee. It was not read to the convention and was not in the plat-form as officially adopted, but Chairman Watson, Senator Smoot and oth ers in charge of the document declared it was adopted by the resolutions committee and is a part of the platform.

"Dity" leaders were assured, before the committee in Harrisburg to speed for the Collseum, that the "law and order" plank was in the platform and order "plank was in the platform and order" plank was in the platform and order "plank was in the platform and order "plank was in the platform and order plank was in the platform and order plank was in the platform. Adoption of Party Platform Only Important Business Transacted at First Night Session - Way Cleared for Nominating Speeches Today (Republican Associated Press Leased Wire) OLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 10-After adopting the report of the resolutions committee, thereby adopting its platform, the Republican national convention at 7:35 o'clock tonight, adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow. There was no fight in the convention over the platform with the hard fought plank on the league of nations.

Attempt to substitute a minarity report went down under a landslide of noes. When the convention reconvenes tomorrow it will be under an agreement to nominate a presidential candidate before it ends its session. All the nominating speeches are to be delivered, all the seconding speeches will be limited to two for each nominee and to five minutes each.

Under that agreement, the convention must finish its congress on the enactment of a law balloting before it adjourns tomorrow night, leaving the nomination of a vice-president for Saturday. The much discussed plank on the league of nations is the one which caused the long delay in bringing the platform before the convention. As finally agreed upon by the resolutions our huge tax burden and in the high this condition can be improved by practical and adequate farm representation of Federal Departments committee and accepted by the convention, it harmonized We advocate a thorough investiga- the views of the conflicting elements, some of which had
